BRIEF DESCRIPTION

We have selected three charming regions of the country to explore in three days: combining a bit of the centre, the north and the south. After leaving Lisbon, we will travel through stunning landscapes, historic cities and traditional corners. An experience not to be missed!

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Leaving Lisbon, head to Sintra to visit the breathtaking Pena Palace, an iconic building at the highest point of the mountain range. Explore the town's historic centre, full of charm and typical sweets such as queijadas and travesseiros. Free time for lunch. The tour continues to Colares, a wine-growing region, and to Cabo da Roca, the westernmost point of continental Europe. Admire the coastal scenery passing Guincho beach and the dramatic Boca do Inferno. End the day in the elegant town of Cascais, returning to Lisbon via the scenic Estoril Coast.

Accommodation in Lisbon.

On the second day, discover Fátima, one of the most important pilgrimage centres in the world, visiting the Basilica and the Chapel of the Apparitions. After lunch, explore the grandiose Church of the Monastery of Batalha, a World Heritage Site, and head to Nazaré, famous for its fishing traditions and impressive views of the site. Before returning, visit Óbidos, a charming medieval town with preserved walls and picturesque alleys.

Accommodation in Lisbon.

On the last day, set off for Évora, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Cross the Tagus and, amidst landscapes of vineyards and cork oaks, you will see the walls that guard centuries of history. Stroll through the narrow streets and discover the Roman Temple, the Cathedral, the Chapel of Bones and the University. Explore Alentejo's handicrafts and enjoy the region's rich gastronomy, finishing with a wine tasting before returning to Lisbon.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Sintra: Pena Palace, Sintra village with its charming alleys, handicrafts, and typical local pastry (queijadas and travesseiros).
- Cabo da Roca, the westernmost point of continental Europe. Visit to Cascais and the Estoril Coast, with its coastal beauty and cosmopolitan charm.
- Fátima Sanctuary, Basilica and Chapel of the Apparitions.
- Batalha Monastery, an example of Gothic architecture and a UNESCO heritage site.
- Visit Nazaré, a fishing village with panoramic views and lovely beaches, and Óbidos, a medieval town with walls and flowered houses.
- Évora, a world heritage site, with the Roman Temple, the Cathedral, the Chapel of Bones and the University.
- Wines and gastronomy typical of the Alentejo region.

BRIEF DESCRIPTION

Uncover the best of central and northern Portugal on an unforgettable 6-day trip. From Óbidos to Braga, passing through Porto and Aveiro, explore cities full of history, stunning landscapes and authentic flavours.

Explore the capital of the North and the Port wine cellars, ending in Minho, between Guimarães and Braga.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION

Heading north from Lisbon, the first stop will be Óbidos, a medieval town surrounded by walls, where you can discover a traditional liqueur “ginjinha”. Continue to Alcobaça, where Pedro and Inês de Castro rest in the monastery church. Continue to Nazaré, a fishing village famous for its legends and long beach, before heading to the Batalha Monastery, one of the most impressive Gothic buildings in Portugal. Arrival in Fátima, where you can attend mass or light a candle in the dedicated space inside the sanctuary.

The next day, travel to Coimbra, where you can explore the famous University of Coimbra and the Church of Santa Clara. Then on to Aveiro, the ‘Venice of Portugal’, and let yourself be enchanted by the canals and Moliceiros boats, before arriving in Porto, a vibrant city that will be your next discovery.

On the third day, set off to discover Porto, with a visit to the Palácio da Bolsa and its beautiful Arab Hall, the Church of São Francisco, the exponent of the Baroque in Portugal, and explore the famous Port wine cellars.

Afterwards, travel to Minho and discover Guimarães, the birthplace of the nation, and Braga, with its imposing cathedral and Bom Jesus Sanctuary.

We have set aside a day for you to enjoy free time to explore Porto at your own pace and the next day head to Amarante, where you can visit the convent of São Gonçalo and explore the banks of the river Tâmega. Cross the Serra do Marão to Vila Real, where you will visit the gardens of Mateus Palace, before heading to the Douro Valley, famous for its vineyards and Port wine. Pass through Lamego and Viseu, with their historic monuments and lively shopping centres. On the last day, cross Bussaco, where you can enjoy the lush vegetation and the Bussaco Palace, before heading to Tomar to visit the Convent of Christ, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Return to Lisbon, completing the trip.
